€coin continues to decline in September

- In September the €coin indicator fell from 0.19 in August to 0.13, the lowest level of the past twelve months.
- The decline reflects not only a further loss of business and consumer confidence, but also the weakening of the industrial cycle and the slowdown in exports.
- The €coin indicator developed by the Bank of Italy provides a summary index of the current economic situation in the euro area. The indicator is an estimate of quarterly GDP growth shorn of the most erratic components (seasonal variations, measurement errors and short-run volatility). €coin is published monthly by the Bank of Italy and CEPR.
- Next €coin release dates: Friday 31 October and Friday 28 November (preliminary).

€coin and euro-area GDP – September 2014

Sources: Bank of Italy and Eurostat.

€coin collates data from a large set of macroeconomic time series (industrial production indices, business surveys, demand indicators, stock market indices and more). It extracts the information that is relevant to tracking underlying GDP trends for the entire area.

The €coin estimate is timely, leading Eurostat's official release of the area-wide GDP growth figure by several months. And it provides a reasonably close anticipation of the quarterly growth rate net of the more volatile components. The estimate of underlying growth trends by €coin has two key advantages:

- (i) monthly frequency, with release several months ahead of the official euro-area GDP estimate;
- (ii) immunity to the short-term fluctuations and measurement errors that mark quarterly output growth; that is, the index figure is an indicator of the euro area's actual growth momentum.

The following table shows the performance of the €coin indicator over the last year:

Month	€COIN
September 2013	0.12
October 2013	0.20
November 2013	0.23
December 2013	0.29

February 2014	0.35
March 2014	0.38
April 2014	0.39
May 2014	0.31
June 2014	0.31
July 2014	0.27
August 2014	0.19
