Sale of good banks to UBI

Upon completion of the selling process, which was conducted, as required by law, according to the principles of openness, transparency and non-discrimination, the Governing Board of the Bank of Italy today approved the signing of the contract for the sale to Unione di Banche Italiane (UBI Banca) SpA of Nuova Banca delle Marche SpA, Nuova Banca dell'Etruria e del Lazio SpA and Nuova Cassa di Risparmio di Chieti SpA.

The authorization procedures required by the other authorities and institutions involved, both Italian and European, will begin immediately, as will the execution of the sale, which should take place in the coming months.

The Bank of Italy's Resolution and Crisis Management Unit is now focused on the negotiations under way with Banca Popolare dell'Emilia Romagna for the sale of Nuova Cassa di Risparmio di Ferrara.
