

Personal Data Protection Notice – ‘Online Statements’: Users

In accordance with the provisions of European and national legislation on privacy, please be informed that the Bank of Italy, located in Via Nazionale 91, Rome (Italy), processes the data provided by users, by the Ministry of Economy and Finance (MEF) and by the Customs and Monopolies Agency.

The data are processed by computerized procedures with the use of appropriate security measures to guarantee their confidentiality and to avoid improper access by third parties or unauthorized personnel.

This processing is necessary in the pursuit of the public interest in the exercise of the State Treasury service and, in particular, to provide credentials for accessing the ‘Online statements’ application and for the sole purpose of performing the service requested. The data will be stored for a period of 35 years starting from the date the user was disabled.

Data can be accessed by the Interim Head of the State Treasury service, by the Directors of Bank of Italy branches and by the personnel authorized to process data.

Users may exercise the right to obtain access to the personal data by contacting the Data Controller – Bank of Italy – Organization Directorate, Via Nazionale 91 – 00184 Rome (Italy), e-mail org.privacy@bancaditalia.it, as well as other rights recognized by the law, including the right to obtain the rectification or supplementation of the data, the deletion, the transformation into anonymous form or a block on data processed in breach of the law, the right to object to the processing, in whole or in part, for legitimate reasons.

The Data Protection Officer can be contacted at: Banca d'Italia, Via Nazionale 91, 00184 Roma (Italia) and at the following e-mail address: responsabile.protezione.dati@bancaditalia.it.

The Data Subjects have the right to lodge a complaint with the Italian Data Protection Authority, should they believe there has been any violation of their rights under privacy laws.
