Update of the ECB's General Documentation

On 26 November 2012 the Governing Council approved a new version of “The implementation of monetary policy in the euro area – general documentation on Eurosystem monetary policy instruments and procedures” and adopted Guideline ECB/2012/25 amending Guideline ECB/2011/14 on monetary policy instruments and procedures of the Eurosystem. This version of the General Documentation includes all amendments made since it was last updated in September 2011. Guideline ECB/2012/25 will apply from 3 January 2013. The Guideline, together with a press release highlighting the main changes made, was published on the ECB's website on 28 November 2012.

Extension of the swap arrangements with other central banks

On 4 December 2012 the Governing Council decided to extend the reciprocal swap lines between the ECB and the Federal Reserve, the Bank of Japan, the Bank of England, the Swiss National Bank and the Bank of Canada until 1 February 2014. It also decided to continue the 7-day and 84-day liquidity-providing operations in US dollars until further notice. A related press release was published on the ECB's website on 13 December 2012.

Details of refinancing operations in the period from January to July 2013

On 6 December 2012 the Governing Council decided to continue conducting its main refinancing operations as fixed rate tender procedures with full allotment for as long as necessary, and at least until the end of the sixth maintenance period of 2013 on 9 July 2013. This procedure will also remain in use for the Eurosystem's special-term refinancing operations with a maturity of one maintenance period and the three-month longer-term refinancing operations to be allotted in the first six months of 2013. A related press release was published on the ECB's website on 6 December 2012.

Euro Money Market Study 2012

On 12 December 2012 the Governing Council approved the publication of the “Euro Money Market Study 2012”, prepared by an ESCB working group reporting to the Market Operations

Committee. This year's study, based on second quarter data for 2011 and 2012, highlights the significant impact of the euro area sovereign debt crisis on the euro money market, as well as the effect of the Eurosystem's extraordinary policy measures, aimed at restoring market functioning in an environment in which the euro money market remains fragmented. The study, together with a detailed press release, was published on the ECB's website on 17 December 2012.

Eligibility of debt instruments issued or guaranteed by the Greek government

On 19 December 2012 the Governing Council adopted Decision ECB/2012/32 on temporary measures relating to the eligibility of marketable debt instruments issued or fully guaranteed by the Hellenic Republic. Decision ECB/2012/32 suspends the application of the minimum credit rating threshold in the collateral eligibility requirements for the purposes of the Eurosystem's credit operations in the case of marketable debt instruments issued or guaranteed by the Greek government, which, provided that they fulfil all other eligibility criteria, regain eligibility status for the purposes of Eurosystem credit operations, subject to special haircuts. The Decision, together with a press release, was published on 19 December 2012 on the ECB's website.

Acceptance of Banka Slovenije's credit assessment system for the purposes of the Eurosystem credit assessment framework

On 19 December 2012 the Governing Council approved the credit assessment system of Banka Slovenije for use within the Eurosystem credit assessment framework (ECAAF). The full list of systems accepted by the Eurosystem for the purposes of the ECAAF is available on the ECB's website.

Eligibility of foreign currency denominated collateral

On 19 December 2012 the Governing Council adopted Decision ECB/2012/34 on temporary changes to the rules relating to the eligibility of foreign currency denominated collateral. The Decision, which enters into force on 3 January 2013, provides the legal basis for the suspension of certain provisions of the General Documentation and the continued eligibility as collateral of some assets denominated in pounds sterling, yen or US dollars. The Decision will be published in the Official Journal of the European Union and is available on the ECB's website.

Payment systems and market infrastructure

Update of the TARGET2 Guideline

On 5 December 2012 the Governing Council adopted Guideline ECB/2012/27 on a Trans-European Automated Real-time Gross settlement Express Transfer system (TARGET2) (recast). The Guideline, which has been recast in the interest of clarity and transparency, incorporates material previously internal to the Eurosystem and adds some definitions and provisions with regard to, inter alia, the new pricing scheme for TARGET2, and information sharing concerning suspension or termination of access to monetary policy operations and the consequences of such suspension or termination. The Guideline will be published in the Official Journal of the European Union and on the ECB's website.
