Governing Council decision on Emergency Liquidity Assistance requested by the Central Bank of Cyprus

On 21 March 2013 the Governing Council decided to maintain the current level of Emergency Liquidity Assistance (ELA) until 25 March 2013. Thereafter, ELA could only be considered if an EU/IMF programme is in place that would ensure the solvency of the concerned banks. A press release announcing this decision was published on the same day on the ECB's website.

Market Operations

Changes to the use of certain uncovered government-guaranteed bank bonds as Eurosystem collateral

On 20 March 2013 the Governing Council adopted Decision ECB/2013/6 on the rules concerning the use as collateral for Eurosystem monetary policy operations of own-use uncovered government-guaranteed bank bonds. Under this Decision, from 1 March 2015, the use of such bonds issued by the counterparty using them or an entity closely linked to that counterparty as collateral in Eurosystem monetary policy operations will be prevented. The Governing Council also decided to amend the rules on the use of uncovered government-guaranteed bank bonds for the period ending on 28 February 2015. To this end, the Governing Council adopted Guideline ECB/2013/4 on additional temporary measures relating to Eurosystem refinancing operations and eligibility of collateral and amending Guideline ECB/2007/9 (recast), the provisions of which encompass several existing legal acts on temporary measures. Finally, in order to clarify the overall framework, the Governing Council adopted Decision ECB/2013/5 repealing Decisions ECB/2011/4, ECB/2011/10, ECB/2012/32 and ECB/2012/34. All legal acts are available on the ECB's website, together with a related press release.
