

24 February 2023

Decisions taken by the Governing Council of the ECB (in addition to decisions setting interest rates)

January - February 2023

Monetary policy

Detailed modalities for reducing asset purchase programme (APP) holdings

On 2 February 2023 the Governing Council decided on the detailed modalities for reducing the Eurosystem's holdings of securities under the APP through the partial reinvestment of the principal payments from maturing securities. The related press release is available on the ECB's website.

Market operations

Amendments to the risk control framework for collateralised credit operations

On 16 December 2022 the Governing Council adopted the following legal acts further to the 2022 review of the ECB's risk control framework for collateralised credit operations:

- Guideline ECB/2022/48 amending Guideline (EU) 2015/510 on the implementation of the Eurosystem monetary policy framework;
- Guideline ECB/2022/49 amending Guideline (EU) 2016/65 on the valuation haircuts applied in the implementation of the Eurosystem monetary policy framework;
- Guideline ECB/2022/50 amending Guideline ECB/2014/31 on additional temporary measures relating to Eurosystem refinancing operations and eligibility of collateral.

The measures adopted improve the overall consistency of the risk control framework and will apply from 29 June 2023. The related press release is available on the ECB's website.

Extension of the NextGenerationEU (NGEU) fiscal agent services to financial assistance for Ukraine

On 16 December 2022 the Governing Council adopted the following legal act to extend the NGEU-related fiscal agent services provided by the ECB to the European Commission to also cover the Macro Financial Assistance plus (MFA+) programme for Ukraine:

- Decision ECB/2022/47 amending Decision (EU) 2019/1743 on the remuneration of holdings of excess reserves and of certain deposits and Decision (EU) 2022/1521 on temporary adjustments to the remuneration of certain non-monetary policy deposits held with national central banks and the European Central Bank.

This change to the ECB's legal framework follows a request received from the European Commission to allow funding to be provided to Ukraine on a structured and predictable basis throughout 2023.

Review of the Agreement on Net Financial Assets (ANFA)

Eligibility of debt instruments issued on the basis of the DG Bank-Umwandlungsgesetz

On 29 December 2022 the Governing Council decided to remove, with effect from 28 February 2023, the debt instruments issued on the basis of DG Bank-Umwandlungsgesetz from the list of eligible assets. These instruments do not qualify as European Economic Area legislative covered bonds as defined in the General Documentation (Article 2 (24a)) and, as of 1 March 2023, can therefore no longer be used as collateral. The phasing out was communicated via an update of the Collateral/Marketable assets section of the ECB's website after the Governing Council's decision, to provide counterparties that have been using the instruments as collateral for Eurosystem credit operations with sufficient time to replace them.

Adjustments to the remuneration of certain non-monetary policy deposits

On 6 February 2023 the Governing Council decided to adjust the ceiling for the remuneration of government deposits held with the Eurosystem in order to provide incentives for a gradual and orderly reduction of those holdings, thereby minimising the risk of adverse effects on market functioning and
