€coin returns to growth in June

- In June the €coin indicator rose, for the first time since January, reaching 0.29 from 0.26 in May.
- Weakness in price growth was more than offset by favourable signs from business surveys conducted prior to the UK referendum on EU membership. Share prices did not have a significant effect on the indicator's movement.
- The €coin indicator developed by the Bank of Italy provides a summary index of the current economic situation in the euro area. The indicator is an estimate of quarterly GDP growth shorn of the most erratic components (seasonal variations, measurement errors and short-run volatility). €coin is published monthly by the Bank of Italy and CEPR.
- Next €coin release dates: Friday 29 July and Friday 26 August (preliminary).

€coin and euro-area GDP – June 2016

Sources: Bank of Italy and Eurostat.

€coin collates data from a large set of macroeconomic time series (industrial production indices, business surveys, demand indicators, stock market indices and more). It extracts the information that is relevant to tracking underlying GDP trends for the entire area.

The €coin estimate is timely, leading Eurostat's official release of the area-wide GDP growth figure by several months. And it provides a reasonably close anticipation of the quarterly growth rate net of the more volatile components. The estimate of underlying growth trends by €coin has two key advantages:

- (i) monthly frequency, with release several months ahead of the official euro-area GDP estimate;
- (ii) immunity to the short-term fluctuations and measurement errors that mark quarterly output growth; that is, the index figure is an indicator of the euro area's actual growth momentum.
