€coin turns upward again in June

- In June €coin rose slightly to 0.62, from 0.60 in May, pointing to a continuing robust expansion of activity in the euro area.
- The positive contributions stemming from persistent business optimism and the favourable performance of the labour market were only partly offset by the negative effects of the appreciation of the euro against the dollar.
- The €coin indicator developed by the Bank of Italy provides a summary index of the current economic situation in the euro area. The indicator is an estimate of quarterly GDP growth shorn of the most erratic components (seasonal variations, measurement errors and short-run volatility). €coin is published monthly by the Bank of Italy and CEPR.
- Next €coin release dates: Friday 28 July and Friday 25 August (preliminary).

€coin collates data from a large set of macroeconomic time series (industrial production indices, business surveys, demand indicators, stock market indices and more). It extracts the information that is relevant to tracking underlying GDP trends for the entire area.

The €coin estimate is timely, leading Eurostat's official release of the area-wide GDP growth figure by several months. And it provides a reasonably close anticipation of the quarterly growth rate net of the more volatile components. The estimate of underlying growth trends by €coin has two key advantages:

- (i) monthly frequency, with release several months ahead of the official euro-area GDP estimate;
- (ii) immunity to the short-term fluctuations and measurement errors that mark quarterly output growth; that is, the index figure is an indicator of the euro area's actual growth momentum.

The following table shows the performance of the €coin indicator over the last year:

| Month | €COIN |
|----------------|-------|
| June 2016 | 0.29 |
| July 2016 | 0.31 |
| August 2016 | 0.32 |
| September 2016 | 0.34 |
| October 2016 | 0.38 |
| November 2016 | 0.45 |
| December 2016 | 0.59 |
| January 2017 | 0.68 |
