

G7 FINANCE STARTS IN BARI ON 12 MAY WITH A SYMPOSIUM ON GROWTH, INEQUALITY AND REGULATION

On Friday 12 May, a symposium attended by economists of international standing, which is not open to the public, will be held in Bari in the Castello Normanno Svevo ahead of the G7 Finance Ministers and Central Bank Governors' meeting. The first session, dedicated to the issues of growth and inequality, will be addressed by Philippe Aghion, Professor of Economics at Harvard University, Giuseppe Bertola, Professor of Economics at the University of Turin, and Sir Angus Deaton, Professor of Economics and International Affairs at Princeton University and Nobel Prize Laureate for Economics in 2015.

The second session, on finance, regulation and growth, will feature contributions from Philip H. Dybvig, Professor of Banking and Finance at Washington University's Olin Business School, Randall Kroszner, Professor of Economics at the University of Chicago's Booth School of Business and former Governor of the Federal Reserve System, and Hélène Rey, Professor of Economics at the London Business School.

Rome, 9 May 2017