

Call for Papers

Bank of Canada – Bank of Italy – BI Norwegian Business School

Conference "Applied Macroeconomics in a Changing World"

Oslo, September 11-12, 2025

The Bank of Canada, the Banca d'Italia, and the Center for Applied Macroeconomic and Commodity Prices (CAMP) at BI Norwegian Business School are organizing a joint conference that will take place in Oslo on September 11-12, 2025. Hosted by the BI Norwegian Business School, the conference will bring together leading academics, central bank researchers, and policymakers to present and discuss innovative research on key macroeconomic challenges and policy responses in today's interconnected world. Submissions are welcome from any field of applied macroeconomics, with special emphasis on the following topics:

- Global commodity markets and the macroeconomy
- Monetary policy and the recent inflation surge
- Fiscal sustainability, sovereign debt risk and macro-financial stability
- Sanctions, geopolitical fragmentation and economic effects
- International spillovers and exchange rate dynamics
- Climate change, the net-zero transitions, and the macroeconomy
- Technological change, AI, and the macroeconomy

Silvia Miranda-Agrippino (Federal Reserve Bank of New York) and Paolo Surico (London Business School) will be the keynote speakers for the event.

Deadline for submission: April 4, 2025. Papers or extended abstracts can be submitted to the following email address: camp-research@bi.no. Authors of successful submissions will be notified by 16 April. Limited travel support is available for academic speakers (CEPR limits apply).

Organizers:

Hilde C. Bjørnland (BI Norwegian Business School)

Reinhard Ellwanger (Bank of Canada)

Fabrizio Ferriani (Banca d'Italia)

Andrea Gazzani (Banca d'Italia)

Francesco Ravazzolo (BI Norwegian Business School)