

Programme

- 10.40 Registration & welcome coffee
- 11.00 - 11.10 Introduction: Andrea Brandolini (Banca d'Italia)
- 11.10 - 13.10 Session 1
Economic development since Italian unification: recent answers and new questions for future research
Chair: Vera Zamagni (Università di Bologna)
- 11.10 - 11.30 Introductory lecture:
Giovanni Federico (NYU Abu Dhabi)
- 11.30 - 12.00 Contributions to the discussion:
Emanuele Felice (IULM), Giovanni Vecchi (Università di Roma Tor Vergata; via Webex), Francesco Cinnirella (Università degli Studi di Bergamo)
- 12.00 - 13.10 Discussion from the floor
- 13.10 - 14.10 Lunch

- 14.10 - 16.10 Session 2
Central banks and major shocks: what do we know from history?
Chair: Gianni Toniolo (LUISS; Duke University)
- 14.10 - 14.30 Introductory lecture:
Stefano Ugolini (Université de Toulouse)
- 14.30 - 15.00 Contributions to the discussion:
Stefano Battilossi (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid), Maria Stella Chiaruttini (Universität Wien), Eugene White (Rutgers University; via Webex)
- 15.00 - 16.10 Discussion from the floor
- 16.10 - 16.20 Conclusion:
Fabrizio Balassone and Federico Barbiellini Amidei (Banca d'Italia)

The symposium will be followed by the presentation, to be held at Palazzo Koch (17:00-19:00), of the first volume on the history of the Bank of Italy written by Professor Toniolo for the Historical Series of the Bank of Italy.

Workshop

RESEARCH ON CENTRAL BANKING HISTORY AND ON ITALIAN ECONOMIC HISTORY: WHERE DO WE STAND AND WHERE ARE WE HEADING?

The Workshop will be held on the occasion of the presentation of the book "Storia della Banca d'Italia, Tomo I. 1893-1943" (Collana Storica della Banca d'Italia - Il Mulino) by Gianni Toniolo.

The Workshop will discuss advances in Italian economic history and central banking history, the two main areas of Professor Toniolo's research, highlighting policy lessons, unexplored issues and new pathways for future studies.

Organization:

Banca d'Italia

Structural Economic Analysis Directorate
Economic History Division

Via Nazionale, 91 - 00184 Roma
SEC.StoriaEconomica@bancaditalia.it

Banca d'Italia
Centro Convegni Carlo Azeglio Ciampi
Via Nazionale, 191 – Rome

18 October 2022