

CSBI – STATISTICS SERIES, I.2

The Economic Accounts of Italy. An Estimate of Value Added for 1911
edited by Guido M. Rey

CONTENTS

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| Presentation by Carlo A. Ciampi                     | v   |
| Introduction by Guido M. Rey                        | vii |
|    |     |
| The Value Added of Agriculture by Giovanni Federico | 3   |
|    |     |
| 1. Introduction  | 3   |
| 2. Plant Production  | 17  |
| 3. Zootechnics Production                                  | 45  |
| 4. Agricultural Sector Expenditure                         | 72  |
| 5. Hunting and Fishing                                     | 77  |
| 6. Forests   | 79  |
|    |     |
| Appendix I  | 87  |
| Appendix II   | 96  |
| Bibliography  | 97  |

The Value Added of Industry in 1911
by Stefano Fenoaltea 105

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| 1. Introduction: the Value Added of Industry                            | 105 |
| 2. The Value Added of Extractive Industries                             | 112 |
| 3. The Value Added of Manufacturing Industries                          | 118 |
| 4. The Value Added of Construction Industries                           | 174 |
| 5. The Value Added of Electrical, Gas and Water Industries              | 181 |
| 6. The Value Added of the Industry: Comparison with the ISTAT Estimates | 185 |

The Value Added of the Tertiary Sector in 1911
by Vera Zamagni 191

|                                 |     |
|---------------------------------|-----|
| 1. Trade and Public Services    | 192 |
| 2. Transport and Communications | 198 |
| 3. Credit and Insurance         | 214 |
| 4. Sundry Services              | 223 |
| 5. Public Administration        | 230 |
| 6. Buildings                    | 234 |

The Reconstruction of the International Balance of Services and Unilateral Transfers of the Year 1911
by Mauro Marolla and Massimo Roccas 241

|                    |     |
|--------------------|-----|
| 1. Introduction    | 241 |
| 2. Employee Income | 241 |
| 3. Tourism         | 254 |
| 4. Transport       | 260 |
| 5. Capital Income  | 277 |
| 6. Other Incomes   | 280 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 1. Introductory Considerations   | 283 |
| 2. Methodological and Definitional Assumptions   | 285 |
| 3. Evaluations of Intermediate Consumption andProductions at Factor Cost             | 290 |
| 4. Foreign Trade in Goods and Services   | 297 |
| 5. The Assessments of Net Indirect Taxes and BrokerageMargins                        | 301 |
| 6. Estimates of Final Household Consumption  | 305 |
| 7. Public Consumption  | 313 |
| 8. The Valuation of Investments  | 313 |
| 9. Gross Domestic Product and Expenditure Components                                     | 317 |
| 10. The Balance of Payments, the Gross National Incomeand the Gross Income Available | 319 |
| 11. Brief Conclusions  | 321 |
| Bibliography  | 324 |
| Appendix  | 325 |