In January lending to the private sector, adjusted to take account of securitizations and other loans transferred and derecognized from banks' balance sheets, expanded by 1.2 per cent on an annual basis (1.1 per cent in the previous month). Household lending grew by 2.2 per cent (1.9 per cent in December) while that to non-financial corporations was up by 0.9 per cent (0.2 per cent in December). Private sector deposits rose by 3.5 per cent on an annual basis. Bond funding fell by 18.1 per cent. Annualized growth in bad debts came to 4.0 per cent (5.6 per cent in the previous month). When this rate of growth is adjusted to take account of securitizations and other loans transferred and derecognized from banks' balance sheets, as also occurs for loans, it comes to 12.2 per cent (12.0 per cent in December).

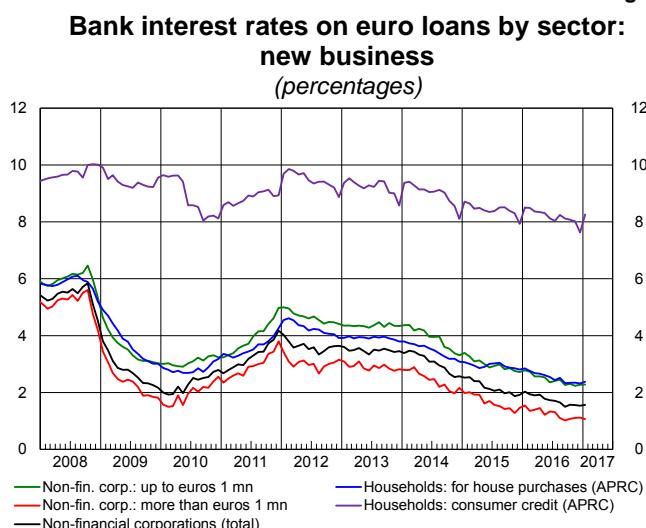

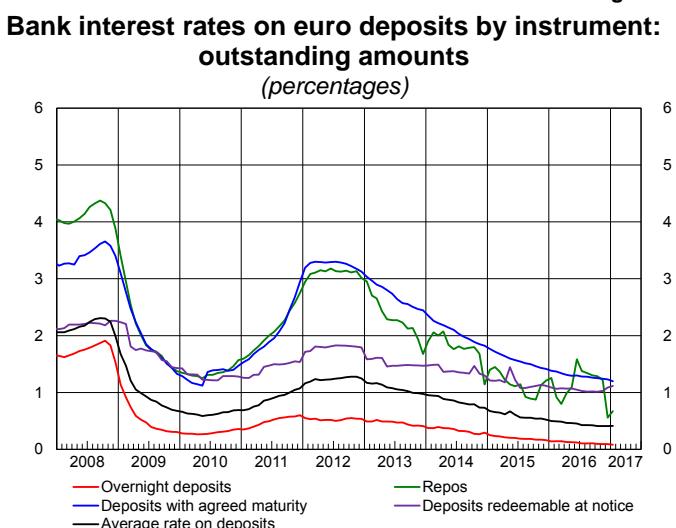

Figure 4

The interest rates on loans granted during the month to households for house purchase, including ancillary costs, came to 2.38 per cent (2.32 per cent in the previous month); those on new disbursements of consumer credit came to 8.26 per cent. Interest rates on new lending to non-financial corporations amounted to 1.56 per cent (1.54 per cent in December); those on new loans of up to €1 million were equal to 2.28 per cent while those on new loans of above that amount were 1.07 per cent. Rates on the outstanding amount of deposits remained stable at 0.41 per cent.

Notice to readers

'Banks and Money: National Data' replaces the previous statistical report 'Money and Banking'. It continues to be issued monthly and to include aggregated national data on the banking system, which for the most part follow the Eurosystem's harmonized definitions. The publication gives greater emphasis to the items of banks' balance sheets and bank interest rates. The data on the Italian components of the statistics on single monetary policy have been rationalized.

The publication comprises 35 tables and is divided into three sections.

Section 1. Banking statistics: balance sheets and other information

Section 2. Bank interest rates

Section 3. Single monetary policy statistics: the Italian components

The 'Methods and Sources: Methodological Notes' is printed separately but forms an integral part of the publication and describes its content.

The publication introduces several new features relative to banks' balance sheets and interest rates on loans.

- There is more information on bank counterparty sectors and bank funding and there are separate statistics on intra-group interbank loans: Tables 1.2, 1.3, 1.5 and 1.6.
- There is a longer time series on loans and bad loans by branch of economic activity in line with the current classification (Ateco 2007/NACE Rev. 2): Tables 1.9 and 1.16.
- New statistics on one-month percentage changes on an annual basis of loans, security holdings and deposits are published, calculated using the Eurosystem's common methodology: Tables 1.13 and 1.14.
- In addition to data on outstanding amounts, data on monthly flows of loans, deposits, bad loans and securitizations and other loan sales are published: Tables 1.4, 1.7, 1.12 and 1.15.
- Some composite indicators of the cost of bank loans in Italy for households and non-financial corporations are introduced: Table 2.1.
- Statistics on new pure loans net of renegotiations are published, for both the loan volumes and rates applied: Tables 2.2, 2.3, 2.4 and 2.5.
